Crl.O.P.No.10402 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 366, 511 and 506(i) of I.P.C. r/w. Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.223 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons attempted to abduct the de-facto complainant. Further they intimidated and compelled her to marry one Vijayakumar. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that this Court had already granted anticipatory bail in favour of the petitioner in Crl.O.P.No.26850 of 2022 on 02.01.2023. It is further stated that the petitioner was unable to give the surety as per the earlier order of this Court. Hence, this second anticipatory bail petition has been filed. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons attempted to abduct the de-facto complainant to compel her to marry one Vijayakumar. Therefore, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioner and also of the fact that this Court had already granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
