11. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected with the offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioners.

12. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioners along with other accused broken the ATM at various places and committed theft of huge amount and also set fire with an intent to destroy the ATM and caused huge damage to the society. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

13. It is seen that the petitioners are hailing from Haryana. The petitioners along with other accused broken the ATM at various places and committed theft of huge amount and also set fire with an intent to destroy the ATM and caused huge damage to the society. So far no substantial recovery is made from the petitioners. Therefore, the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is very much required in these cases. If the petitioners are let out on bail, they would commit the similar offence.
