The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section girl missing @ 366 of IPC and Sections 6, 5(1) of POCSO Act, 2012 and Prohibition of Children Marriage Act, 2006, in Crime No.698 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the victim girl, daughter of de-facto complainant were in love affair. On 27.12.2022, the victim girl informed her parents and went to meet her friend, whereas, the victim girl did not return home on that day. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that petitioner and the victim girl, daughter of de-facto complainant were in love affair. On 27.12.2022, the victim girl informed her parents and went to meet her friend, whereas, the victim girl did not return home on that day. He further submitted that the petitioner is arrayed as A2 and A1 has already been released. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and the fact that A1 had already been released, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Magistrate Court, Namakkal on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent
