Crl.O.P.No.10596 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.191 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner has abused the daughter of the defacto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted her with knife, due to which, she sustained grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to matrimonial dispute, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner has abused the daughter of the defacto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted her with knife, due to which, she sustained grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
