Crl.O.P.No.10559 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 352, 379 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.152 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Anand is that on 04.03.2023 at about 9.30 a.m., when he was travelling in the car belonging to his relative, the petitioner along with other accused, waylaid the car and attacked his relative one Silambarasan with hands on his face, abused him with filthy language and attempted to attack with Aruval and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case and another case in Crime No.151 of 2023 on the same day due to political motive. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner is a habitual offender against whom there are 8 previous cases pending.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that most of the cases are registered on account of political animosity. However, he would submit that the petitioner is ready to stay away and also ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

7. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and
