The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.64 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute, while the defacto complainant was drawing water from the well, the petitioner and his father abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences and attacked him, due to which, the defacto complainant fell into the well and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
