The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of I.P.C r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.66 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, the petitioner was found in illegal transportation of two units of river sand in his vehicle without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him. However, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court.

Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner had illegally transported two units of river sand without any valid permit from the Government by using Tipper Lorry Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he fairly conceded that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees twenty Thousand only) to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and the contentions before the trial Court.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
