Crl.O.P.No.10623 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 379, 506(ii) IPC alter into Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 307, 379 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.176 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.04.2023 at about 08.00 A.M, the station Sub-Inspector recorded a statement from one D.Gopi, who was taking treatment at Thiruvallur Government Hospital, wherein the defacto complainant stated that the petitioners and some others assaulted him when the defacto complainant tried to console the petitioners who quarrelled among them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that there was no quarrel as alleged by the defacto complainant and the petitioners have nothing to do with the said allegation and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioners and also the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before
