The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 of I.P.C r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals of (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.283 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during their routine check up, the petitioners were found in illegal transportation of four units of mud sand, using lorry, without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the second petitioner is the owner of the vehicle and he had an valid work order from ITD Cementation India Ltd. and the Southern Railway had granted permission for dumping the earth soil in the low lying area at Korukkupet or Tondiarpet, however, without verifying the documents properly, the respondent police has registered the case against the petitioners. He further submitted that, without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the petitioners, they are prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners had illegally transported four units of mud sand without any valid permit from the Government by using lorry. He further submitted that, no previous case is pending against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to jointly deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and the contentions before the trial Court.
