Crl.O.P.No.10594 of 2023

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 IPC and in Crime No.27 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity regarding property dispute, the petitioners are alleged to have trespassed into the property of the defacto complainant, attacked him and his family members, due to which, they sustained injuries and admitted in hospital . Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners have criminally trespassed into the property of the defacto complainant and also attacked him and his family members and inflicted injuries on them. He also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Arani, Thiruvannamalai District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank
