K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 379 of I.P.C in Crime No.229 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.04.2023, the de-facto complainant viz., Mr.Subramani who is working as Junior Executive Engineer, TNEB, Keezhanur, received a phone call from a farmer viz., Mr.Sekaran who informed the de-facto complainant that the Electricity Lines approx. 3,380 meter length worth about Rs.1,02,826/- in his field were found missing and an unknown person has involved in this theft. Therefore, the de-facto complainant has lodged a complaint in this regard and the respondent Police has registered a case. In this case, 6 persons viz., A1 to A6 were remanded in the judicial custody as accused and the petitioner's name has been mentioned in the Confession Statement of A1. Aggrieved over the same, the petitioner has filed the present petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that A1 is an Electricity Contractor who takes contract works in TNEB and the petitioner is working as an employee under A1, on the basis of which, petitioner's name has been falsely implicated as accused in this case. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner is a habitual offender. So, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also, considering the fact the petitioner is only working as an employee under A1 and he is no way connected to the alleged offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
