The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under sections 147, 148, 294(b), 341, 353, 324, 379 & 506 (ii) of I.P.C., in Crime No.181 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners/accused have abused the police officials who came to the house of the accused for investigation, in filthy language and assaulted them with wooden rod and stone. The accused have also stolen the cell phone and gold chain of the police officials. During the scuffle, the de-facto complainant and other police officials have sustained grievous injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are no way connected with the alleged offence. He also submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that it is the case, where, the petitioners along with another person, have abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant who are police officials and caused grievous injuries. He also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the
