The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379, 430 IPC read with 21(5) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.100 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 06.05.2023, while the respondent Police was on regular patrol duty, the petitioner was found illegally transporting 100 Kgs of river sand in a two wheeler viz., Splendor Plus bearing Registration No.TN97-X-5107, without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against him. However, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner had illegally transported 100 Kgs of river sand without any valid permit from the Government by using a two wheeler viz., Splendor Plus bearing Registration No.TN97-X-5107 and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5.In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioner offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to his rights and the contentions before the trial Court.
