The petitioner, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 365 & 506 (ii) of I.P.C., in Crime No.61 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, there is a quarrel between the husband of the defacto complainant and one Arumugam who is the neighbour of the petitioner and that the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the husband of the defacto complainant. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there are totally six accused and the petitioner is A6. He further submitted that the victim has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
