3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. 4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was in the possession of one gunny bag which contains 110 litres of banned wine. He further submitted that there are six previous cases as against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to “the District Revenue Officer, Mayiladuthurai District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Mayiladuthurai District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif and Judicial Magistrate, Tharangambadi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute bond for
