2.The case of the prosecution is that during the routine checkup, the respondent police found that the petitioner was in the possession of 10 litres of ID arrack. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has been falsely implicated by the respondent police and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. 4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was in possession of 10 litres of ID arrack. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7.Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to “the District Revenue Officer, Villupuram District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. However, it is made clear that merely because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Villupuram District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ulundurpettai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees
