Crl.O.P.No.11006 of 2023

K.GOVINDARAJAN THILAKAVADI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 394 and 506 (i) of I.P.C. in Crime No.171 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 20.04.2023, when the defacto complainant was travelling in his motor cycle, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with stone and snatched his cell phone worth Rs.10,500/- and a silver chain. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned X
