Crl.O.P.No.11111 of 2023

K.GOVINDARAJAN THILAKAVADI, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C. in Crime No.281 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant's son was in a wine shop, the petitioners had intentionally attacked him and escaped from the occurrence place. Thereafter, on the same day, the petitioners abused defacto complainant and his son with filthy languages and attacked them with deadly weapons, thereby causing injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are no way connected with the alleged offence. He also submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and his son with deadly weapons and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured have been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made on either side and also the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioners are ready and willing to deposit some amount to the credit of Crime No.281 of 2023, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.2,500/- (Rupees Two thousand Five hundred only) each, to the credit of Crime No. 281 of 2023, within a period of three weeks from the date on which the order copy made ready, and on such deposit the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II,
