JUDGMENT

After originally entering appearance on behalf of the appellant, M/s.De Penning and De Penning, submitted that they have no instructions to prosecute the appeal on behalf of the appellant. In those circumstances, learned counsel for the Registrar of Trade Marks was directed to ascertain and report as to whether a change of agent or change of address was communicated by the appellant to the Trade Marks Registry. At today's hearing, he reports that no change of address or agent was communicated. In these circumstances, this appeal cannot be proceeded with.

2. Therefore, (T)CMA(TM)/141/2023 is dismissed for non-prosecution without any order as to costs.
