The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 279 and 379 of IPC in Crime No.113 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 01.05.2023, the petitioners were illegally transported the rough stones in a tractor bearing registration No. TN-29-CZ-2538 without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. However, without prejudice to their rights and contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a substantial amount towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that petitioners were illegally transported the rough stones in a tractor bearing registration No. TN-29-CZ-2538 without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. In order to curb the illegal mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees five Thousand only) each to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and the contentions before the trial Court.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the
