The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.04.2023 for the offence punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 22(b), 25, 29(1) of NDPS Act, in Crime No.60 of 2023, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.04.2023, while the respondent Police and his team were on their routine patrol duty, the petitioner along with two other accused was found in illegal possession of 15 grams of methamphetamine. Hence the case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that even as per the prosecution, the contraband alleged to have been recovered from the petitioner is an intermediate quantity. He further submitted that the co-accused in this case namely A1 has already been granted bail by the trial Court in Crl.M.P.No.3373 of 2023. He also submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 12.04.2023. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.Learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner along with two other accused was found in illegal possession of 15 grams of methamphetamine, which is an intermediate quantity and it is wrongly mentioned as commercial quantity in the counter filed by the respondent. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
