Crl.O.P.No.11413 of 2023

V.LAKSHMINARAYANAN. J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294 (b), 324 and 506 (1) of IPC in Cr.No.83 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that 07.02.2023 at about 6.00 p.m., when the defacto complainant was cleaning his car in front of his shop, the petitioner was shouting, when the defacto complainant tried to talk to him, he had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language. At that time, he picked up a broken photo frame from the garbage and attacked him furiously, thereby, he caused severe injuries. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent, law abiding citizen and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is ready to furnish substantial sureties and any conditions to be imposed by this Court for grant of anticipatory bail.

Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the petitioner is an habitual offender; abused the defacto complainant with filthy language; he picked up a broken photo frame from the garbage and attacked him furiously, thereby, he caused severe injuries. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her/their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
