The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c), and 20(b)(ii)(A) of NDPS Act, 1985 in Crime No.162 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with two other accused were found to be in illegal possession of 200 gms of Ganja and on seeing the police, the petitioner ran away from the scene of occurrence. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that based on the confession statement recorded from the arrested accused, the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused in this case have already been granted bail by the Trial Court.

He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case pending as against him. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on him. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with two other accused were found illegal possession of 200 gms of ganja. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.15,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government. He further stated that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on him. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) to the credit of the Dean, Thiruvallur Medical College and Hospital, Thiruvallur District, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the counsel on either sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.15,000/- to the Dean, Thiruvallur Medical College and Hospital, Thiruvallur District, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
