Crl.O.P.No.11513 of 2023

V.LAKSHMINARAYANAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 364, 294(b), 323, 307 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.111 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners abducted and attacked the defacto complainant, and thereby he sustained grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there was a civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant due to which the petitioners abused and attacked him. He further submitted that the defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Cheyyur, on condition that the
