The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.78 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.04.2023, while the defacto complainant/ Gunaseelan and his brother, returning to their home after fishing from river, saw the first accused and one girl were chatting together near the river side and defacto complainant warned that girl and asked her to return to her home, due to which, the petitioner along with other accused, abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant with hands, legs and aruval and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is an innocent person. He further submitted that a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused, abused the defacto complainant with filthy language, assaulted him with aruval and threatened with dire consequence. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case and the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
