Crl.O.P. No. 11733 of 2023

V.LAKSHMINARAYANAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 4(1)(aaa) r/w 4(1-A) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act in Crime No.260 of 2023, on the file of respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that when the respondent police was on regular patrol duty, they have intercepted petitioner's vehicle and on search, they found the petitioner along with other accused were said to have transported 110 litres of pondy arrack in their vehicle for the purpose of selling the same. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for petitioner submitted that on the confession statement of A1, the respondent police implicated the petitioner as accused in this case. He would further submit that at the time of occurrence, he is not present in the scene of occurrence and he is an innocent person and he has not committed any of offence as alleged in the complaint. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and also abide by any condition imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent raised objection stating that on the date of occurrence, when the respondent police was on regular patrol duty, they intercepted the petitioner's vehicle and on search, they found the petitioner along with other accused were in illegal possession of 110 litres of pundy arrack for selling. He would further submit if he is granted anticipatory bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the investigation is almost completed and also the fact that the petitioner is said to be found in possession of having 110 litres of pundy arrack for selling and it is also being humongous quantity, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
