Though the matters are not in the list, at the request of both the parties this case is taken up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. M/s.Ramya V. Rao, learned counsel appearing for the appellant and M/s.S.Mishra Sathya Seeman, learned counsel appearing for respondents. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matters as follows.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.18,91,400/-, with interest 7.5% at the rate of per annum from the date of the petition till the date of deposit of the award amount. Aggrieved by the said award, the appellant / respondent Corporation has preferred the present appeal.

2. The Appellants/claimants and respondent Corporation entered in a compromise on following terms;

(i) The appellants in C.M.A.No.2226 of 2021 are agreed to settle for a sum of Rs.21,00,000/- in full quit of claims against the respondent/Corporation.

(ii) The above said sum shall be deposited within a period of twelve(12) weeks from today, failing which, the above said sum shall carry an interest of 7.5% per annum. The appellant/ Corporation shall deposit the above said sum after deducting any amount already deposited.

(iii) On such deposit, the appellants/claimants are permitted to withdraw the said amount by making formal application.

3. Accordingly, the Tribunal is directed to transfer the amount through RTGS to the parties on proper identification in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal petition. The Award is passed accordingly.

The Civil Miscellaneous Appeals are disposed of accordingly. Consequently, the connected MP, if any, is closed.
