The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of I.P.C., in Crime No.100 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Due to domestic quarrel between the husband and wife, the wife has given a complaint against this petitioner alleging harassment, ill treatment and physical assault.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that there is some matrimonial dispute between him and his wife and the petitioner has already filed a petition for divorce before the Family Court, Puducherry in MOP.No.456 of 2022. During pendency of the said divorce petition, the defacto complainant tendered an unconditional apology to the petitioner herein and started living with him. While so, in order to harass the petitioner

, he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and also abide by any condition imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for respondent raised objection stating that the petitioner tried to strangle the defacto complainant's neck and beat her severely. He would further submit if he is granted anticipatory bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the fact that injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
