COMMON ORDER

The petitioners, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.04.2023, in connection with Crime No.86 of 2023, registered for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 489(A), 489(B), 489(C) & 489 (D) of IPC, on the file of the respondent, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent had registered a suo-moto case in Crime No.86 of 2023 for the offence punishable under Sections 489(A), 489(B), 489(C) & 489 (D) of IPC stating that on 11.04.2023 at about 9.30 a.m., while the respondent were conducting the regular vehicle check up, they had intercepted the accused's vehicle bearing registration no.TN 07 AK 5619 and found that there were 500 rupees fake currency notes in the dashboard and accused 1, 2 & 3 were arrested and based on their confession the other accused were arrested. Further, the allegation against the accused is that they had printed the counterfeit Indian currency notes of 500 denomination by using colour photo copy machines and from A3, 50 notes and from A5 & A7, 30 notes from each were recovered. Hence the case.

3. Learned Counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that even reading of the First Information Report would go to show that it is a suo moto case registered by the respondent and the petitioners were falsely roped in this case. He also submitted that other than certain colour xerox copies of the 500 rupees notes and the alleged confession statement, there is no material to show that the petitioners have printed the counterfeit notes and they have also attempted to exchange the notes in public. He further submitted that the similarly placed co-accused (A4 & A8) in this case has been enlarged on bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.11284 of 2023 dated 17.05.2023. He also submitted that the petitioners are having permanent residences. Thereby, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

He further submitted that subsequently based on the confession statement recorded from the arrested accused, the present petitioners have been arrested. He also submitted that the colour xerox notes of Rs.500/- denomination to the sum of Rs.2,77,000/- were recovered from the accused. He also submitted that the investigation in this case is still pending, therefore, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain condition.
