Crl.O.P. No. 12146 of 2023

V.LAKSHMINARAYANAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(2) of I.P.C. in Crime No.133 of 2023, on the file of respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that on 27.04.2023, when the petitioner along with other accused roaming in and around Panapakkam village and said to have created rucks in the village, it was questioned by the defacto complainant, who is the Nattamai of the said village, they have scolded him in filthy language, attacked him and also threatened him with dire consequences, thereby he suffered injury and subsequently he was admitted in a Primary Health Centre at Panapakkam. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for petitioner submitted that a false case has been foisted against him and he has not committed any offence as alleged in the complaint. He would submit that he is no way connected with the offence and he is an innocent person. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and also abide by any condition imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent raised objection stating that the petitioner along with other accused in a drunken mood created nuisance in the village, which was questioned by the defacto complainant, in which they have scolded him, assaulted him and also threatened him, thereby he sustained injuries and subsequently after treatment, he was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit if he is granted anticipatory bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the fact that injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
