Crl.O.P. No. 12148 of 2023

V.LAKSHMINARAYANAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 341, 355, 352, and 506(1) of I.P.C. in Crime No.108 of 2023, on the file of respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that due to a civil dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, there was a wordy quarrel between them, thereby he assaulted him and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for petitioner submitted that a false case has been foisted against him and he has not committed any offence as alleged in the complaint. He would submit that he is no way connected with the offence and he is an innocent person. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and also abide by any condition imposed by this court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent raised objection stating that due to previous enmity, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, in which he scolded him, assaulted him and also threatened him. He would submit that due to the said occurrence, both the petitioner and defacto complainant gave complaints and the respondent police registered the petitioner's complaint in Crime No.109 of 2023. He would further submit if he is granted anticipatory bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the investigation is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
