Crl.O.P.No.12658 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.496 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant/Lawrence is that, due to a wordy quarrel, the petitioners have abused and attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log and thereby causing injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, a false complaint has been given against him. He would also submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners have abused and attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log causing injuries to him. He further submit that the injures has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on either sides and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
