2. The case of the prosecution is that on receipt of a secret information, the respondent and his team conducted a search and they found that the accused was in illegal possession of 30 litres of I.D arrack. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. She also submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is in custody from 15.05.2023, hence, she prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defence and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government. She further stated that the petitioner is also ready to abide by any other stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, she prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government District Head Quarters Hospital, Tiruvannamalai", this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

10. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) directly to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government District Head Quarters Hospital, Tiruvannamalai", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his
