The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 447, 294(b), 324 and 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No. 249 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, due to previous enmity, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and assaulted the defacto complainant with iron rod. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He further submit that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that, due to previous enmity, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and attacked him with iron rod and thereby causing injuries to him. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
