A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/ Police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No. 287 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant Pugazhendhi is that on 18.05.2023 at about 8.05 am, due to previous enmity, the accused assaulted the de facto complainant with car key and intimidated him. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given by the de facto complainant. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to previous enmity, the accused assaulted the de facto complainant with car key and resulting him in sustaining injuries. Hence he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
