ORDER

Challenging the orders, dated 02.06.2022 passed in Crl.M.P.No.865 of 2022 by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Dharmapuri, the present Criminal Revision is filed by the petitioner.

2. The revision petitioner filed a petition in Crl.M.P.No.865 of 2022 under Section 451 of Cr.P.C., before the Principal Sessions Judge, Dharmapuri, seeking interim custody of the vehicle viz., Tractor with trailer bearing registration No.TN-29-AJ-7616, which was seized in connection with Crime No.330/2021 by the respondent police and subsequently produced before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Palacode in C.P. No.21/2022. The said petition was dismissed by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Dharmapuri on 02.06.2022 on the ground that the vehicle was involved in illegal transportation of sand, aggrieved over which the present revision is filed.

3. Mr.M.Muruganantham, learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the accused is an innocent person and if the seized vehicle is kept in an open space the value of the vehicle would diminish over a period of time.

4. Mr.R.Vinothraja, learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent contended that the vehicle was used for illegal transportation of one unit of sand. He further contended that there is no case pending against the petitioner and also did not raise any serious objection in allowing this petition.

5. In this back drop, it is relevant to refer a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai and others Vs. State of Gujarat reported in (2002) 10 SCC 283, in which it is held thus:

“In our view, whatever be the situation, it is of no use to keep such seized vehicles at the police stations for a long period. It is for the Magistrate to pass appropriate orders immediately by taking appropriate bond and guarantee as well as security for return of the said vehicles, if required at any point of time. This can be done pending hearing of applications for return of such vehicles.

In case where the vehicle is not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by third person, then such vehicle may be ordered to be auctioned by the Court. If the said vehicle is insured with the insurance company, then insurance company be informed by the Court to take possession of the vehicle, which is not claimed by the owner or a third person. If insurance Company fails to take possession the vehicles may be sold as per the direction of the Court. The Court would pass such order within a period of six months from the date of production of the said vehicle before the Court. In any case, before handing over possession of such vehicles, appropriate photographs of the said vehicle should be taken and detailed panchanama should be prepared.”

6. It is true that keeping the vehicle idle in an open space, would definitely impair the value of the vehicle over a period of time. As such, considering the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court is inclined to grant interim custody of the vehicle to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision is allowed and the
