The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 07.03.2023 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) read with 20(b)(ii)(c), 25, 29(1) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, in Crime No.44 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 04.03.2023, based on a specific information, the respondent police intercepted 3 persons/A1 to A3 who came in a two wheeler bearing Regn.No.TN 18 AJ 3045 and on search, they seized 21.700 kgs. of Ganja from them. On enquiry, A3/Mohan confessed that A4/Ranjith, A5/Gokul and A8/Sai Krishnan had purchased the said contraband from Thuni at Andhra Pradesh and the same was thrown by them at Perambur Railway Track. Subsequently, the petitioner/A6 and A7 picked up the contraband from the railway track and handed over the same to A3/Mohan. Thereafter, A1 to A3 took the contraband from the backyard of A3's house. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession recorded from one Mohan/A3 that the contraband was handed over to him by the petitioner and another accused/A7 namely Rasdaq.

The fact remains that the petitioner has got one previous case under NDPS Act, registered by the very same respondent police in Crime No.46 of 2023 for having found in illegal possession of 3.800 Kgs. of Ganja. Hence, he has been falsely implicated in this case. She would further submit that the petitioner has been languishing in jail for more than 90 days from 07.03.2023. She would reiterate that only based on the confession recorded from the co-accused, the petitioner has been implicated in this case. Other than that absolutely there is no recovery from the petitioner and that there is no material to show that the petitioner and one Rasdaq/A7 had handed over the contraband to A3/Mohan. However, on instructions she would submit that the petitioner without prejudice to his defence, is ready and willing to deposit a substantial amount to any welfare scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court and she prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner stating that the respondent police had seized commercial quantity of 21.700 Kgs. of Ganja from one Mohan/A3 and he had confessed that the petitioner/A6 and one Rasaan/A7 had handed over the same to him. He further submitted that the petitioner has got 2 previous cases out of which, one case is registered for the offence under NDPS Act.

5. The respondent has filed a detailed counter.

6. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record including the FIR and counter.

7. The allegations against the petitioners is that the petitioner is stated to have handed over commercial quantity of contraband weighting 21.700 Kgs. to one Mohan/A3. Admittedly, there is no recovery from the petitioner and that there is no material to connect the petitioner with the said Mohan/A3. This Court is of the opinion that the petitioner has complied with the twin conditions required under Section 37 of NDPS Act.

8. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant of bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
