Crl.O.P.No.13133 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 324, 294(b) and 506(2) IPC in Crime No.130 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Renaldin Terrance is that on 28.05.2023, he had gone to a party hall named seven Sins. At that time, there was a wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and A1 during which, A1 along with this petitioner and other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted him with beer bottle due to which, he sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case since he happens to be the friend of A1. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
