3. In the affidavit filed in support of this application, it is stated by the applicant that the suit was filed during lock-down period and hence, he could not file all material documents in support of the suit claim along with the plaint.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent vehemently opposed this application on the ground that the written statement has already been filed and therefore, the present applicant is not entitled to maintain the present application.

5. It is seen from the records that the plaint was presented on 19.03.2020 just two days before the announcement of Nationwide lock down and thereafter, there was a lock down.

6. In view of the assertion made by the applicant due to lock down, he could not produce certain material documents relating to
