The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 31.03.2023 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) read with 20(b)(ii)(B) of the NDPS Act, in Crime No.12 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 31.03.2023, the petitioner along with two other accused was found in possession of 1.200 Kgs. of Ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration for more than 70 days from 31.03.2023. However, without prejudice to his defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a substantial amount to any welfare scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) appearing for the respondent vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner along with two other accused was found in possession of 1.200 Kgs. of Ganja and he has got 2 previous cases for the offence under Indian Penal Code.

5. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) by way of RTGS/NEFT to the credit of "The Head Master, Government Higher Secondary School, Sunguvachathiram,, without prejudice to her rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner has deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant of bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

9. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to make a non refundable deposit of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only) by way of RTGS/NEFT to the credit of "The Head Master, Government Higher Secondary School, Sunguvachathiram," without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Special Court under EC & NDPS Act, Chennai-104, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
