COMMON ORDER

These Writ Petitions have been filed for issuance of Writ of Mandamus directing the Respondent to pay difference in earned leave salary, medical leave salary on private affairs convertible into 90 days, difference in gratuity and CRBS recovered amount with 10% interest to the Petitioner.

2.Heard Mr.S.T.Varadarajulu, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioners, Mr.M.Ashwin, learned standing counsel appearing for Respondent.

3.Mr.S.T.Varadarajulu, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner submitted that the Petitioners were working in the Respondent Corporation and on attaining the age of superannuation, they got retired. At the time of their retirement, they were in the pay structure of 6th Pay Commission and they received settlement as per the 6th Pay Commission recommendations. While so, the Government released an order for the 7th Pay Commission recommendations, with effect from 01.01.2016 and monetary benefits from 01.10.2017. As per which, the Respondent revised the pay of the serving employees in April 2018 and for the retired employees in October 2019 and the Petitioner are not paid with revised terminal benefits such as difference in leave salary and difference in gratuity as per the 7th Pay Commission recommendations. Eventhough the
