Crl.O.P.No.12914 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 447, 294(b) and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.263 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him and threatened him by using wooden log. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to civil dispute, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) would submit that due to civil dispute, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him and threatened him by using a wooden log. He would further submit that three previous cases are pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.In reply, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner was having previous cases prior to the year 2016 and thereafter, the petitioner has not involved in any of the offences for the past 7 years. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the previous cases are prior to the year 2016, this
