A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.90 of 2023 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner had picked up a quarrel with him and during the quarrel, the petitioner had abused him in filthy language, assaulted him with metal stone. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit due to previous enmity, the petitioner had picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant and during the quarrel, the petitioner had abused him in filthy language, assaulted him with metal stone. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Vellore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only)
