A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No. 12 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to family quarrel regarding eviction from the property, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with stones. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submit that due to family dispute, a false complaint has been given against him. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Crl.O.P.No.13218 of 2023

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners are relatives of the defacto complainant. Due to family dispute regarding eviction from the property, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant and also attacked him with stone. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as out-patient. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail
