further submitted that till date, the petitioner has not been arrested and hence, he seeks for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender and a history sheeted rowdy, against whom, six previous cases are pending. He further submitted that as far as this case is concerned, the petitioner along with other accused have abused and assaulted the relative of the defacto complainant and when it was prevented by the defacto complainant, he was assaulted by the accused. He further submitted that this Court taking into consideration the previous antecedents of the petitioner and the petitioner is a person who has inflicted injuries on the victim, had dismissed the earlier application for anticipatory bail. He also submitted that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required and there is no change in circumstances of the case. Hence, he prayed for dismissal of the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. This Court taking into consideration the petitioner is a history
