The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 26.04.2023 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w 22(b) of NDPS Act, in Crime No.255 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.04.2023, the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 12 grams of methamphetamine. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner, who is a student and resident of Kerala, is an innocent person and he came to Tamil Nadu for higher studies and due to language problem, he has been unnecessarily roped in this case. He would further submit that even as per the prosecution, the contraband alleged to have been recovered from the petitioner is of an intermediate quantity. He would further submit that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration from 26.04.2023. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was found in possession of 12 grams of methamphetamine and that the petitioner is a native of Kerala. He would also submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the parents of the petitioner are ready to stand as surety to the petitioner and he is ready to furnish proof of his permanent residence.

However, without prejudice to his defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a substantial amount to any welfare scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

7. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand Only) to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Medical College and Hospital, Coimbatore District" without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
