this case. He would further submit that, in fact, the defacto complainant has assaulted the petitioners in respect of which, the counter case has been registered in Crime No.111 of 2022 on the complaint given by the first petitioner's daughter and it is a case in counter and based on the previous enmity, a false complaint has been foisted against the petitioners. He would also submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioners have abused the de facto complainant and her husband with filthy languages, intimidated them and also assaulted them and caused severe injuries. He would further submit that there is a case in counter in Crime No.111 of 2022 and no previous case as against the petitioners. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
