The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.170 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her grandson in filthy language and assaulted them with iron rod and caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely roped in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused in this case were granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.10869 of 2023 dated 10.05.2023 and the injured has also been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent police would submit that there are totally four accused in this case in which, the petitioners are arrayed as A3 and A4. He would further submit that the petitioners along with other accused have attacked the defacto complainant and her grandson with iron rod and abused them in filthy language. He would submit that the A1 and A2 were already granted anticipatory bail by this Court and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances and also considering the fact that the main accused in this case were granted anticipatory bail by this Court and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
