A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/ Police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.186 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant had gone to take possession of the property pursuant to the court order, the accused persons have abused and assaulted him. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that due to a civil dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, a false complaint has been given as against the petitioners. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioners. Hence, he would seek for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to civil dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, the petitioners have assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Dharapuram on condition that the each
