4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners stating that due to previous enmity, the petitioners trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked him, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the fact that the injured has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
